Mongiuffi Melia has been working for years in close collaboration with the Youth Council, a body that was created in support of the municipal administration to guide choices relating to youth policies by listening to the direct voice of young people, citizens of the future.

The project was held in Mongiuffi Melia (Italy) from the 9 to 11 November 2021.

The activities were highly participated and interactive with the citizens involved, with the organization of discussions and debates, workshops, seminaries, round table, Working Group, Brainstorming, exchanges of best practices in order to develop an active citizenship and to foster interactions between the youngsters involved.

The project dealt with through a methodology in which citizens and young people were the real actors of the project with their opinions, experiences and point of view. Through these activities, citizens together with young people were able to give a contribution to the implementation of the Future of the EU Agenda.

Practical workshops were conducted to exchange knowledge and experiences about the awareness of the Future of Europe and their perception of the challenges that the EU is called to face.

The future of Europeans depends on the direct involvement of citizens, whose aspirations are necessarily projected into the future. Following the European Commission's priorities, the project wanted to give the opportunity to develop their sense of European citizenship with the involvement of 190 direct and 140 indirect participants.
